The Best Fishing Spots

Ohio River

The mighty Ohio River forms the northern boundary of Campbell County, offering anglers a vast playground with endless opportunities. The river's diverse habitat supports a wide variety of fish species, including:

- Largemouth and smallmouth bass
- Bluegill and crappie
- Catfish
- Walleye
- Muskie

With its abundant fish populations and scenic surroundings, the Ohio River is a must-visit destination for any fishing enthusiast.

Licking River

The Licking River flows through the eastern portion of Campbell County, providing anglers with another excellent fishing spot. Known for its clear water and diverse fish populations, the river offers opportunities to catch:

- Rainbow and brown trout
- Smallmouth bass
- Bluegill and crappie
- Catfish

Whether you're casting a line from the bank or drifting down the river, the Licking River offers a rewarding fishing experience.

Rattlesnake Creek

Rattlesnake Creek is a smaller tributary of the Ohio River, but it packs a punch when it comes to fishing. The creek is home to a healthy population of:

- Largemouth and spotted bass
- Bluegill and crappie
- Catfish

Rattlesnake Creek is an ideal spot for those who prefer a more intimate fishing experience in a tranquil setting.

Floating the Waterways

Ohio River

In addition to fishing, the Ohio River is also a popular destination for floating. With its wide, slow-moving waters, the river offers a relaxing and scenic float trip.

- Several launch points are available along the river, including the Newport Boat Ramp and the Campbell County Park.
- Floaters can choose to float for a few hours or multiple days, camping along the riverbanks.
- The Ohio River is a great place to spot wildlife, including bald eagles, osprey, and deer.

Licking River

The Licking River is also suitable for floating, offering a more intimate and secluded experience.

- The river is narrower and more winding than the Ohio River, with a variety of small islands and sandbars.
- Floaters can access the river at several points, including the Falmouth Boat Ramp and the Licking River Canoe and Kayak Rental.
- The Licking River is a great place to see wildflowers, butterflies, and other natural beauty.

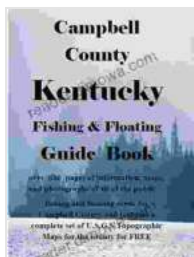

Insider Tips

- Check the weather forecast before you go. The weather in Campbell County can change quickly, so it's important to be prepared for all conditions.
- Bring plenty of water and snacks. Staying hydrated and well-nourished is essential, especially during hot weather.
- Wear appropriate clothing and footwear. Comfortable, moisture-wicking clothing and sturdy shoes or boots are recommended for fishing and floating.
- Be aware of your surroundings. Pay attention to the current and other boat traffic, and always wear a life jacket when on the water.
- Respect the environment. Pack out what you pack in, and dispose of trash properly.
