Planning Your Visit

Before you visit the Louvre, there are a few things you should keep in mind. First, the museum is huge! There are over 35,000 works of art on display, so you won't be able to see everything in one day. It's important to prioritize what you want to see and make a plan for your visit. You can find a map of the museum on the Louvre's website here:

<https://www.louvre.fr/en/plan-your-visit>

Second, the Louvre can get very crowded, especially during peak season. To avoid the crowds, try to visit during the off-season or on a weekday. You can also Free Download a timed ticket, which will guarantee you entry at a specific time. Timed tickets can be Free Downloadd online or at the museum.

Third, the Louvre is a very popular tourist destination, so be sure to book your accommodation in advance. There are many hotels and apartments located near the museum, so you can easily find something that fits your budget and needs.

What to See

The Louvre is home to some of the world's most famous works of art, including the Mona Lisa, the Venus de Milo, and the Winged Victory of Samothrace. But there are also many other hidden gems to be discovered. Here are a few of our favorites:

- The Mona Lisa: Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa is the most famous painting in the world, and it's a must-see for any visitor to the Louvre. The painting is housed in a bulletproof glass case, and it's always surrounded by a crowd of admirers. But don't let that deter you from getting a closer look. The Mona Lisa is a truly captivating work of art, and it's worth taking the time to appreciate it.

- The Venus de Milo: The Venus de Milo is a marble sculpture of the Greek goddess Aphrodite. The statue is missing its arms, but it's still one of the most beautiful and iconic works of art in the world. The Venus de Milo is a symbol of beauty and love, and it's a must-see for any lover of art.
- The Winged Victory of Samothrace: The Winged Victory of Samothrace is a marble sculpture of the Greek goddess Nike. The statue was discovered on the island of Samothrace in 1863, and it's now one of the most famous sculptures in the world. The Winged Victory of Samothrace is a symbol of victory and freedom, and it's a must-see for any visitor to the Louvre.
- The Egyptian Antiquities: The Louvre has one of the world's largest collections of Egyptian antiquities. The collection includes everything from mummies to statues to sarcophagi. The Egyptian Antiquities are a fascinating glimpse into the ancient world, and they're a must-see for any history buff.
- The Islamic Art: The Louvre has a large collection of Islamic art, including ceramics, textiles, and metalwork. The Islamic Art collection is a testament to the rich and diverse culture of the Islamic world, and it's a must-see for any art lover.
