Discover the Hidden Gems of Saline County

Saline County is home to a diverse range of aquatic environments, each offering unique opportunities for fishing and floating.

Rivers

The mighty Missouri River serves as the backdrop for some of the best fishing and floating in the region. Cast your line for catfish, bass, and walleye in the river's deep pools and eddies. The calmer waters of Saline Creek and Blackwater River provide excellent float trips, offering a leisurely way to soak up the scenery.

Lakes

Lake of the Woods and Rothwell Lake are prime destinations for both fishing and floating. The lakes' clear waters support a variety of fish species, including crappie, bass, and bluegill. Spend a relaxing day casting from the shore or take a boat out for a scenic float on the lake's calm waters.

Campsites

Saline County offers a range of campgrounds that provide the perfect base for your outdoor adventure. Pitch a tent under the stars at Long Branch State Park or stay in a cozy cabin at Missouri State Fairgrounds. These campgrounds offer amenities such as picnic areas, fire pits, and boat ramps, ensuring a comfortable and enjoyable stay.
